Prepared for Crest Insurance Group on November 4, 2026

18 offices, one quote form, and no word on when anyone calls back.

We read Crest the way a new client would: website, quote forms, public listings and reviews. Everything below links to where we saw it. Three fixes cost nothing and you can make them this week.

The short version

- Your site lists 18 office entries but no opening hours, and nothing about what to do after hours or on weekends.
- The “Get a Consult” form doesn't say when someone will respond.
- Reviews call your team responsive, with one recent complaint about follow-through.

Three fixes you can make this week, free

No software, no budget, no need to talk to us. Tick them off as you go; this page remembers.

- [ ] 1 Add hours to each office entry.

  On the homepage and contact page, matched to each Google listing. While you're there, reconcile the list: the contact page sidebar still names Scottsdale and Mesa, which aren't on the homepage.

- [ ] 2 Add one line under “Get a Consult.”

  Say how and when someone will respond, using whatever is true today. It sets expectations and costs nothing.

- [ ] 3 Add a short claims and after-hours box.

  Tell clients who to contact for a claim and what to do when the office is closed, including carrier claim numbers where that's the right path.

How customers reach you

Every line links to where we saw it.

Phone ● Works

18 office entries with local numbers, plus a shared toll-free line, (888) 881-5765.
`crestins.com`

Email

Works

An email link for each office on the contact page. `crestins.com`

Quote requests

Worth a look

A home and auto form with “Get a Consult,” and a separate small-business quote tool. Neither says when you'll respond. `crestins.com`

Existing clients

Works

A Client Service Portal linked from the homepage. We didn't open it. `portal.csr24.com`

Wyoming offices

Worth a look

Tegeler & Associates brings 14 Wyoming locations; the homepage lists Laramie and Rawlins and doesn't mention Tegeler yet. `civc.com`

Chat, text, claims contact

Not seen

Not seen on the homepage or contact page. A widget that loads separately may not have shown up for us.

After hours and weekends

What a customer reads depends on where they look.

Your website

Gap

No hours, weekend, after-hours or emergency-claims wording on the homepage or contact page. `crestins.com`

Tucson, public listing — Works

Birdeye: Monday to Friday, 9 a.m.–6 p.m., closed weekends. `reviews.birdeye.com`

Flagstaff, public listing — Worth a look

Birdeye: Mon–Thu 8 a.m.–5 p.m., Fri 8:30 a.m.–4:30 p.m., closed weekends. The profile is unclaimed. `reviews.birdeye.com`

Quote form — Gap

Doesn't say when someone will get back to the person who filled it in. `crestins.com`

What your customers say about speed

Birdeye shows 4.0 from 45 Google reviews for Tucson and 4.2 from 31 for Flagstaff. Recent reviews praise responsiveness, with one complaint about follow-through on a single agent.

“They have always been great at responding to my questions”

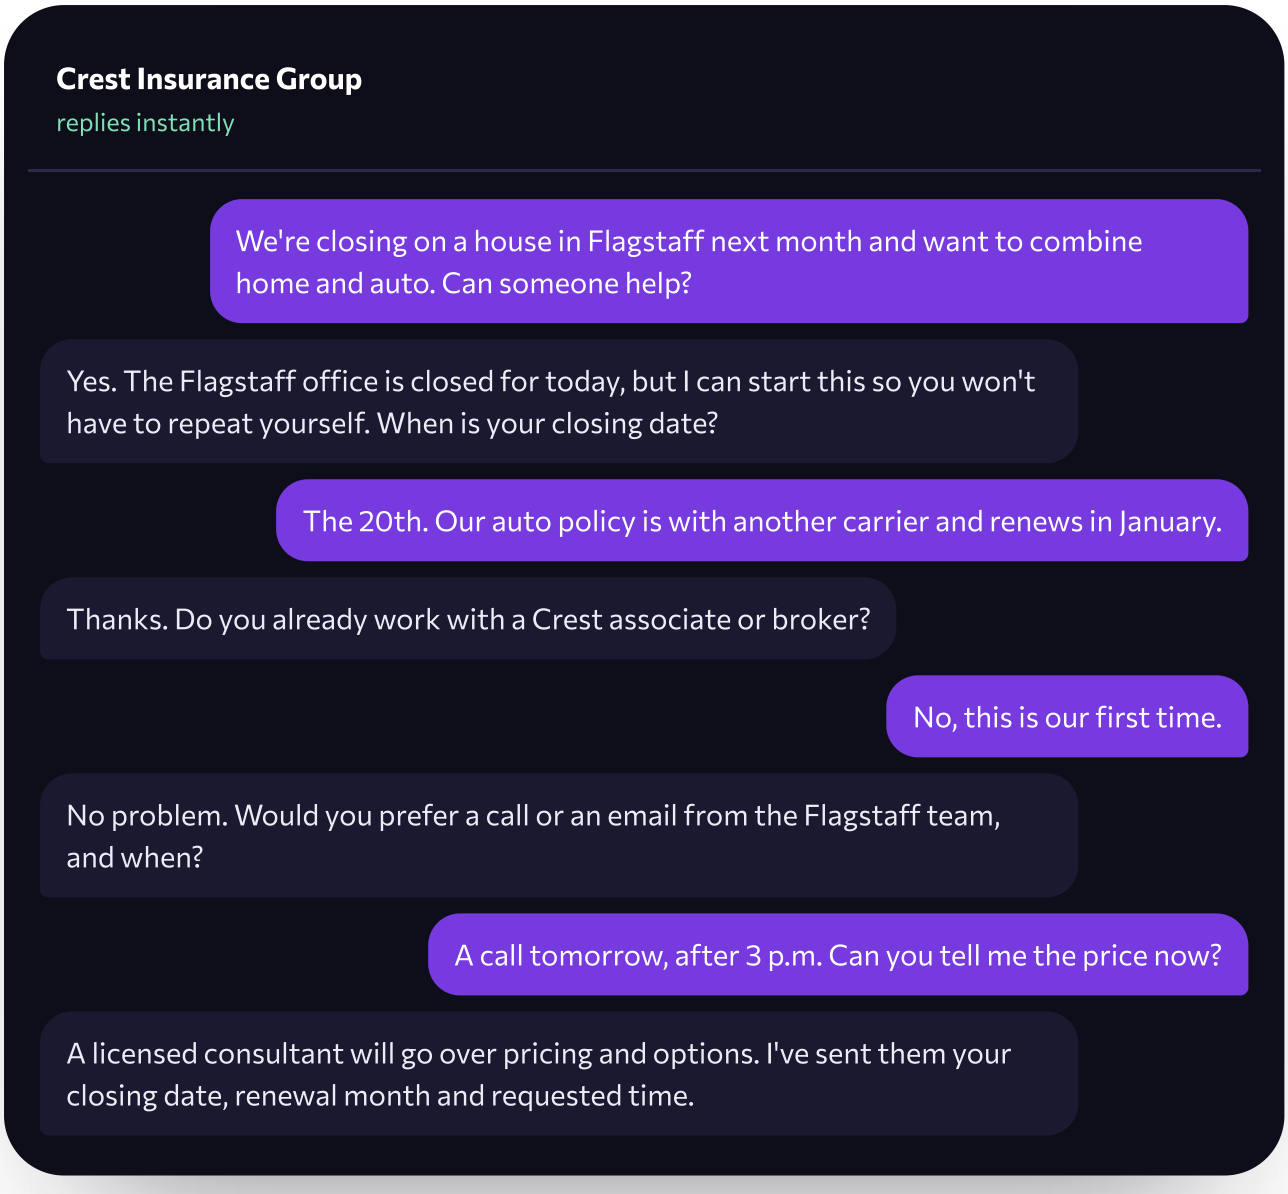

Google review on Birdeye, Tucson, about two months ago

“Every member of the Crest team is knowledgeable, professional, responsive, and genuinely committed”

Google review on Birdeye, Tucson, about two months ago

“complete lack of follow through”

Google review on Birdeye, Tucson, about one agent, about four months ago

What an evening quote request could look like

Illustrative only, using your home and auto consult. A real version follows your routing and licensing rules, and never quotes or binds coverage.

If you want it built

An intake desk that never closes, routed to the right office

Every quote form, call and message gets an answer in minutes, day or night, with the details captured and booked into the right office's calendar. Licensed staff do the quoting.

Timeline

Live for the first offices in about two weeks, including the Wyoming locations as they join.

Investment

$15–50k. One-time setup, retainer from $3.5k / month. Part of the fee can be tied to a number we agree on.

Or just use the three fixes. They're yours either way.

How we made this

Researched with NEXTWISE's own AI agents, the same kind we build for clients, then checked line by line and sent by Darius Arvinte, our founder. Only public information, as of November 4, 2026.

What we read

- crestins.com homepage, contact page and quote form
- Birdeye profiles for Tucson and Flagstaff
- Public Google reviews shown on Birdeye
- CIVC press release on the Tegeler acquisition

What we didn't do

- We didn't call or submit any form, so we can't say how after-hours contacts are handled in practice.
- We didn't open the client portal.
