1 After-hours replies

Send these automatically when nobody can answer. Swap in your real response times.

Text, Metro · missed call after hours

Hi, this is Metro Plumbing, Heating & Air. Sorry we missed your call. If you smell gas, leave the house and call 911 and your gas utility from outside. For an urgent repair, reply URGENT with your address and our on-call technician will call you back within [time]. Anything else, reply with a few words and we'll call you [tomorrow from 8 a.m.].

Text, Dixie · missed call after hours

Hi, this is Dixie Electric, Plumbing & Air. Our office is closed right now and opens at [7 a.m. CT]. If this is an emergency repair, reply URGENT with your address and [what happens next]. If you smell gas or see sparks, get everyone outside and call 911 first.

Email, both brands · form submitted after hours

Thanks, we've got your request for [service] at [address]. Our office is closed right now, so here's exactly what happens next: [a team member calls you by 9 a.m. tomorrow / the on-call tech calls within the hour if you marked it urgent]. If anything changes, just reply to this email.

2 “What happens next” lines

Put these under your forms and booking buttons.

Under Metro's “Schedule Your Service” button

We confirm every request by [phone/text] within [time] during business hours. After hours? Call [one number] for emergencies; everything else is confirmed first thing next morning.

Under Dixie's booking picker

Picked a time? We'll call or text to confirm by [time]. Booking after 5 p.m. or on a weekend means we'll confirm the next business morning.

3 Voicemail greeting

Thirty seconds. Record it once per office or brand.

Metro, after hours, 30 seconds

You've reached Metro Plumbing, Heating & Air. Our office is closed, but we offer 24/7 emergency service across Greater Chattanooga. If you smell gas, hang up, leave the house and call 911. For an urgent repair, leave your name, address and what's going on, and our on-call technician will call you back within [time]. For anything else, we'll call you back [tomorrow morning]. Thank you.

4 Replies to your reviews

Including the one that hurts. Answer within a day.

Reply to “I never heard back” (Dixie, MapQuest/Yelp)

We're sorry. Not hearing back is exactly what we never want for a customer, and it shouldn't have happened. We'd like to make it right: please call [name] directly at (334) 262-2946, or reply here with the best time, and we'll follow through personally. We've also [what you changed, e.g. added a confirmation text to every request] so this doesn't happen again.

Reply to a review praising speed (Laura M., BBB)

Thank you, Laura. Getting to you quickly matters to us as much as the work itself, and we'll pass your words on to the team. We're here whenever you need us.

Reply to a late-visit thank-you (Pat W., Customer Lobby)

Thanks, Pat. Working around your schedule is part of the job, and we're glad it helped. See you next time, and we hope not too soon.

5 Listings checklist

Make every place a customer finds you say the same thing.

| WHERE | WHAT TO CHECK | DONE |
|---|---|---|
| Metro, HomeAdvisor profile | Emergency service answer matches the website's 24/7 promise. | ☐ |
| Metro, contact page | One phone number shown; the second one removed or labelled. | ☐ |
| Metro, "Book Online" | Click through and confirm it opens the scheduler. | ☐ |
| Dixie, Google Business Profile | Hours match the website (7–5 CT, 8–6 ET) or the site says 24/7. | ☐ |
| Dixie, contact page | One sentence on what to do after 5 p.m. and on weekends. | ☐ |
| Dixie, BBB profile | Hours and phone match the website. | ☐ |
| Both brands, review sites | Every negative review answered within a day, using the reply above as a start. | ☐ |
